STATUTES

The Authorities of the University (Chapter IV of the Act)

CHAPTER - I THE SENATE

(a) Elections to the Senate

Statute 1:

All elections (in the University) shall be held according to the system of proportional representation by means of a single transferable vote by ballot as laid down in Section 55 of the Veer Narmad South Gujarat University <sup>1</sup> Act. 1965

Statute 2:

(1) A person entitled to stand as a candidate or to vote in more than one constituency mentioned in Clause (iii) and in sub-clause (e) of Clause (iv) of Section 16 (I) Class II (A), shall at least fifty six clear* days before the date fixed for election, select the constituency from which he desires to stand as a candidate or to vote at the election and shall not be entitled to stand or vote in more than one constituency.

(2) In case a voter fails to notify to the Registrar his intention in this respect, the Vice-Chancellor shall direct the Registrar to retain his name in any one constituency and his decision shall be final.

* 'clear days' means days exclusive of the day on which notices reach the Registrar and the day of the meeting. Thus if the meeting is fixed for Wednesday, and five clear days' notice is required; the notice must reach the Registrar on the previous Thursday, if for Thursday, the notice must reach him on the previous Friday.

Statute 3:

(1) Persons already registered as Registered Graduates of this University during 1966 shall be deemed to have been registered up to 31st December, 1971.

(2) All Graduates of the University shall be entered in the Register of the Registered Graduates on their first graduation in the University and shall pay a fee of Rs. 20/- in cash for such registration. It will hold good for five years beginning from the 1st January of the following year, in which they have taken the degree, provided they continue to reside ordinarily in the University area.

The registration fee shall be paid along with the fees for admission to the first degree.

- (3) In addition, the following persons shall, on payment of Rs. 20/- be enrolled as Registered Graduates for a period of five years:
- (a) All Graduates of any Indian University established by Law who ordinarily reside in the University area.
- (b) Graduates of the following Institutions who ordinarily reside in the University area:
- |     |                              |               |
|-----|------------------------------|---------------|
| (1) | Gujarat Vidyapeeth           | Ahmedabad     |

Statute 4:

- (1) (a) All persons referred to in sub - clauses (3) (a), (b), (c) of Statute 3 wishing to have their names enrolled on the register shall apply to the Registrar in the prescribed form.
- (b) Any person desiring to get himself registered may send in an application with the necessary fees to the Registrar of the University at any time during the year before the 1st of December and his name shall be put on the roll of the Registered Graduates on the 1st of January of the following year.
- (2) All persons referred to in sub-clauses 3 (a), (b) and (c) shall produce along with their application, evidence to the satisfaction of the Registrar of their having taken their degrees and shall produce a declaration made before a Magistrate or J.P. or a Member of the Senate of the Veer Narmad South Gujarat University <sup>1</sup> for the time being, to the effect that they ordinarily reside in the Veer Narmad South Gujarat University <sup>1</sup> area.
- (3) (a) When the roll is revised on the 31st of December every year, an announcement in the newspapers, selected by the Vice-Chancellor, shall be made in the first week of January that the rolls of the Registered Graduates are being revised and if any corrections, any omissions or wrong entries are brought to the notice of the Vice - Chancellor before the 31st of January, the Vice-Chancellor shall have the power to correct the rolls accordingly and his decision in the matter shall be final.
- (b) The roll so corrected up to 31st January shall be used for any bye-election during that calendar year and it shall be the roll to be published under Statute 9 (2) for the bye-elections during that year.
- (4) Registered Graduates shall notify in writing to the Registrar every change in their address.
- (5) The register of Graduates mentioned above shall be revised every year on the 31st of December and published every five years.

- (6) All persons whose names are entered on the said register of Graduates shall, subject to the provisions of the Act, be entitled to vote or to stand as a candidate at the election of the representatives of the Registered Graduates on the Senate in accordance with the Statute framed in that behalf.
- (7) The registration, on the expiry of its period of five years, can be renewed for a further period of five years by applying in a prescribed form and paying a renewal fee of Rs. 5/- only. The renewal fee should be paid before the 15th of December of the year in which the registration expires.

Statute 5:

A person desiring to be enrolled as required under section 16 (1), Class II (A), Clause (iii) and sub clause (e) of Clause (iv) of the Act, shall at least 28 days before the date fixed for the preparation of the Electoral Rolls as laid down in Statute 10 and Statute 13, elect the Faculty under which he desires to be enrolled and from which he desires to stand as a candidate or to vote at the election. He shall not be entitled to stand or vote in more than one Faculty.

Statute 6:

If a person desiring to be enrolled under Statute - 5 does not inform the Registrar of the Faculty from which he desires to stand as a candidate or to vote at the election before the date fixed under Statute-5, the Vice- Chancellor shall in his discretion decide in which faculty he shall be included and his decision shall be final.

Statute 7:

For the purpose of election to the Senate, Syndicate, Academic Council and other authorities of the University.

- (a) Principals of affiliated degree colleges and Heads of recognised institutions in the University area shall be deemed to be Principals and Teachers; and
- (b) Teachers and Principals of affiliated Colleges in the University area shall be deemed to be Teachers.

Statute 8:

In all Faculties or Constituencies where elections are to be held under Section 16 (1), Class II (A) there shall be an annual revision of the Roll on the 31st of December of every year, including persons who are entitled and have applied for registration.

Statute 9:

- (1) For every election to the Senate, the electoral roll shall be the one published before the date of issue of the Election Notice.
- (2) The rolls of persons, public associations or bodies entitled to vote at an election to the senate shall be published at the University Office, except when otherwise specified, at least 42 clear days before the date of election. An announcement that the rolls are ready shall be inserted in such newspapers as the Vice-Chancellor may select at least 35 days before the election.

- (a) The electoral roll published under Statute 4(5) and statute - 9 (1) will be as per the approved polling centres. As far as possible the Registrar shall allot the polling centre to each of the registered graduate voters nearer to his address declared in his application form and to the rest of the voters, the polling centre nearer to the address of the institution where they are working. The voter concerned shall have to vote at the polling centre allotted to him.
- (b) Even then if any Registered Graduate Voter under Section 16 (I) Class-II (A) (iv) (e ) desires to vote at the polling centre other than that allotted to him he shall have to apply to the Registrar along with satisfactory reasons, at least twenty-five clear days before the date of election. The Vice-Chancellor shall have the authority to decide the matter and his decision shall be final. Then such a voter shall have to vote at the changed polling centre only.
- (3) The Vice-Chancellor shall have the authority to correct the rolls if any omission or wrong entry is brought to his notice at least twenty-five clear days before the date of election. The Vice -Chancellor's decision in the matter shall be final.
- (4) Whenever there is a vacancy in the Senate, the notice of election relating thereto shall be given to all voters, except when otherwise provided, at least twenty-one clear days before the date of election and in the said notice the fixed date as the last date for receiving nominations and the date of election shall be precisely stated and relevant details regarding the vacancy given.

Statute 10:

Statute 24:

Each member, before he takes his seat, shall register his attendance in a book placed for the purpose at the entrance of the place of the meeting.

Statute 25:

The Chancellor or in his absence the Vice-Chancellor or in the absence of both the Pro-Vice-Chancellor <sup>3</sup> or in his absence a member elected by the meeting shall preside over the meetings of the senate. The senior most amongst the Deans present shall take the Chair for and until such election only.

Statute 26:

Twenty members of the Senate shall form quorum and all questions shall be decided by a majority of votes of the members present, the Chairman, in the case of equality of votes having a second or casting vote.

Statute 26- A:

At any time when it is noticed that the number of members present in the meeting of the Senate is less than the prescribed quorum, the Chairman sue motto or at the instance of any member, shall direct for ringing of the quorum bell kept outside the place of the meeting hall to announce the deficiency in quorum. After the quorum bell is rung, the Chairman shall wait for ten minutes to enable the meeting to reach the quorum. If no quorum is reached after ten minutes of the ringing of quorum bell, the Chairman shall dissolve the meeting of the Senate for that day. The Senate shall, however, meet on the subsequent day or days for which the notice is given under Statute - 29.

Statute 27:

If there is no quorum at the commencement of a meeting, the Chairman shall at the expiration of a quarter of an hour take notice whether the number of members required for quorum is present, and if they are not, the meeting shall forthwith be adjourned to such date as the Chairman may appoint, and the Registrar shall send intimation to all members at least 7 days before the date fixed for the meeting. Such adjournment shall be recorded by the Registrar under the signature of the Chairman. In the case of a meeting adjourned for want of quorum, no quorum will be required.

Statute 28:

Such proposals and amendments only as are connected with the Veer Narmad South Gujarat University <sup>1</sup> and are in accordance with the Act shall be entertained and debated in the Senate.

Statute 29:

The Registrar shall give notice of the likely date of the meeting of the Senate 42 days before such date. A member of the Senate who intends to move a resolution or resolutions shall give notice thereof to the Registrar within 10 days of the date of the notice given by the Registrar.

Statute 30:

Twenty-one clear days before the day fixed for a meeting of the Senate, the Registrar shall forward to each member of the Senate a statement of business to be brought before the meeting and of all resolutions to be then proposed, together with the name of the proposal of each, intimation in writing of which has previously reached him. The inclusion of a report of any committee of the Senate on the agenda - paper shall be held to be equivalent to notice of motion for its adoption.

Statute 31:

When a motion, which has been moved by a member of the Senate, is referred by the Senate to the Syndicate for report and the report of the Syndicate thereon comes before a subsequent meeting of the Senate for consideration, the report of the Syndicate shall take the place of the original motion, and its adoption shall be moved as a motion, recommended by the Syndicate. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Statutes, the mover of the original motion or any other member may move an amendment that the report be recorded and that the original motion be accepted, with or without, such amendment, as may be proposed and adopted.

Statute 32:

Notice in writing of the proposed amendments and the terms thereof and of motions for any change in the order of business as set forth in the statement must be forwarded so as to reach the Registrar ten days before the date of the meeting.

Statute 33:

The Registrar shall, seven days before the day of the meeting, forward to each member of the Senate a statement of all motions and amendments and no motion or amendment of which such notice has not been given shall be put to the meeting other than a motion for a dissolution, adjournment or suspension of the sitting, for passing to the next business on the statement, for directing the Syndicate to review their decision, for deferring the matter under consideration to the Syndicate, Academic Council or a Faculty for report, or an amendment accepted by the Chairman as merely formal.

Statute 34:

No matter which has been decided by the Senate shall within a period of six months after its disposal be reconsidered by it unless three - fourths of the members present at the meeting vote in favor thereof. The above provision shall not apply to a matter which had been previously declared to be out of order by the Chairman of the meeting.

(d) Order of Business

Statute 35:

At every meeting the business to be entertained shall, unless the meeting by special vote otherwise determine, be taken in the following order :

- (1) The election, if it is part of the business to be entertained at the meeting of the Chairman;

- (3) The Election, if it is part of the business to be entertained at the meeting of a member of any authority of body of the University;
- (4) Answers by the Vice - Chancellor or a member of the Syndicate nominated by the Vice-Chancellor for the purpose or the Registrar, as the case may be, to any questions asked by any member of the Senate, of which not less than thirty days notice has been given for the purpose of obtaining information concerning the University;
- (5) The consideration of the Annual Report, Accounts and Financial Estimates and resolution thereon, when they are part of the business to be entertained at the meeting.
- (6) The consideration of Ordinances, motions for making, amending and repealing statutes, and proposals recommending amendments in the Act;
- (7) Any motion for a change in the order of business, provided that such motions shall not affect the order herein above indicated or give priority to any item of business over the items mentioned in (1) to (7) above, or any of them;
- (8) Any business or motion of which due notice has been given, in the order in which such business and motions are entered in the statement of business, and motions to be brought forward subject to the provisions of this Statute and Statute 43 :

Statute 36:

- (1) Not more than the first sixty minutes on the first day of the meeting of the Senate may be set apart for answering questions and supplementary questions. Any question not answered during this period shall lapse, but the questioner may revive it in the form of a fresh question at a subsequent meeting of the Senate by giving not less than thirty days' notice.
- (2) No question may be admitted which does not satisfy the following conditions, viz-
- (i) (a) It shall be so framed as to be a request for information.
  - (b) It must not contain arguments, inferences, ironical expressions or defamatory statements.
  - (c) It must not ask for an expression of opinion or for the solution of a hypothetical proposition or the solution of an abstract legal question.
  - (d) It must not refer to the character, competence or conduct of any person except in his official capacity.
  - (e) It must not refer to a matter which is of a confidential nature.
  - (f) It must not contain any name or statement not strictly necessary to make the question intelligible.
  - (g) It must not involve the preparation of elaborate statements, statistics of expenditure of an excessive amount of time and labour.
  - (h) It must not be such as cannot be answered consistently with the interests of the university.
- (ii) The Vice-Chancellor shall decide on the admissibility of a question. He may disallow any question which, in his opinion, contravenes the above rule and his decision shall be final.
- (iii) All questions together with such answers as are ready shall be issued to the members with the revised agenda.
- (iv) Any member may put a supplementary question for the purpose of elucidating any fact regarding which an answer has been given. The Chairman for the meeting may disallow any supplementary question if in his opinion, it infringes the rules relating to question and his decision shall be final.
- (v) The Chairman may ask for notice of a supplementary question which he is not prepared to answer.
- (vi) The answers to the questions or supplementary questions may be given by the Vice- Chancellor or any member of the Syndicate nominated by the Vice-Chancellor for the purpose or by the Registrar.

(e) Rules of Debate

Statute 37:

Every motion shall be formally moved by the member in whose name it stands, or if he is absent or declines to move it, it may be moved by any other member, provided, however, that the proposer may reserve his remarks till the motion is stated from the Chair. (Vide Statute 39).

Statute 38:

Every motion at a meeting must be seconded; otherwise it shall drop. The seconder of a motion may reserve his speech.

Statute 39:

When a motion has been seconded, it shall be stated from the Chair.

Statute 40:

When the proposal has been thus stated, it may be discussed as a question to be resolved simply in the affirmative, or negative or as proposed to be varied by way of amendment. When, before or after the debate, no member rises to speak on the motion, the Chairman shall proceed to put the proposal to the vote in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

Statute 41:

A substantive proposal once brought forward shall not be proposed a second time at the same meeting, or any adjournment thereof. A proposal substantively identical in part with one already disposed of may be brought forward at the same meeting, or at any adjournment thereof with omission of such part.

Statute 42:

- (1) Not more than one proposal and one amendment thereto shall be placed before the meeting at the same time, provided, however it shall be open to the Chairman to take-up more than one amendment to a proposal together with a view to discussing the whole issue at a time.
- (2) Each amendment shall be disposed of before the next one is put to vote.
- (3) All amendments which are not withdrawn shall be considered and voted upon.
- (4) In case no notice of amendment has been given, the Senate shall at once proceed to consider and vote upon the proposal.

Statute 43:

In any debate a member may move ( but shall not make any speech on the motion that the question be now put and unless it shall appear to the Chairman that such motion is an infringement of the rights of reasonable debate, the motion that the question be now put -shall be put to the vote forthwith and decided without amendment or debate.

Statute 44:

When the motion' that the question be now put' has been carried, the Chairman shall call upon the mover of the proposal or amendment under consideration to reply.

Statute 45:

No member of the Senate shall ordinarily speak for more than 15 minutes while proposing a motion on the agenda or for more than 7 minutes, while moving an amendment or seconding or speaking on a motion or amendment or while replying to a debate, provided always that the time limit shall be operative only when the Chairman, either sue motto or at the instance of a member of the Senate, rules that the time limit has been exhausted by the speaker concerned.

( f ) Amendments

Statute 46:

An amendment must be relevant to and within the scope of the motion to which it is proposed.

Statute 47:

An amendment in the alternative shall not be moved.

Statute 48:

No amendment shall be proposed which would reduce the proposal to a negative form.

Statute 49:

No amendment shall be proposed which raises a question already disposed of by the meeting or is inconsistent with any resolution passed by it.

Statute 50:

Every amendment shall be in such form that it modifies the original motion by any or all of the following methods:

- (1) by addition of words;
- (2) by deletion of words;
- (3) by substitution of words; and the mover of the amendment may state the motion or the part thereof affected as it would stand when so amended.

Statute 51:

The order in which amendments to a proposal are to be brought forward shall be determined by the Chairman with reference to their extent and mutual relation.

Statute 52:

An amendment, the substance of which has been disposed of in part, may be modified by its proposal so as to retain only the parts not so disposed of.

Statute 53:

When an amendment has been moved and seconded, it shall be stated from the Chair and then the debate may proceed on the original proposal and the amendment together, but so far as the question raised by the amendment is one on which a member has not yet spoken, he may speak on that question even though he may have spoken on the original question, or a previous amendment.

Statute 54:

If any amendment be carried, it shall become part of the motion before the Senate and the motion shall be modified accordingly.

Statute 55:

When all the amendments for which due notice has been given, have been considered, the original motion, or the original motion as amended in course of debate shall be placed before the Senate and put to vote without further discussion.

(g) Withdrawal of a Question

Statute 56:

No question shall be withdrawn from the decision of the Senate without its consent. If the mover states his wish to withdraw a proposal or amendment and if no objection is stated thereto in the interval allowed by the Chairman for the purpose, the Chairman shall declare that the question is withdrawn with the consent of the Senate.

(h) Resolution of the Senate into a Committee

Statute 57:

- (a) The Senate may, when it thinks fit, resolve itself into a Committee to consider any item which may be on the agenda of business.
- (b) A motion for the resolution of a meeting into a Committee may be made by any member at any time (but not so as to interrupt a speech) without the notice required under Statute 29, but can only be placed before the Senate for considerations if the Chairman gives permission for this to be done.
- (c) No speech shall be allowed in moving the motion.

- (d) No such motion shall be considered unless at least 10 members rise in support thereof.
- (e) The motion then having been duly seconded, shall be put to the meeting without further discussion and shall only be carried if two third of the members present vote in its favour.

Statute 58 :

- (a) When the Senate decides in this manner to resolve itself into a Committee, the Chairman shall be the same as for the meeting of the Senate, and the quorum shall be the same as for the meeting of the Senate.
- (b) The manner in which the discussion of the matter under consideration shall be conducted in the discretion of the Chairman. When in the judgement of the Chairman the matter has been sufficiently discussed, the Committee shall embody its conclusions in a report to be signed by the Chairman.
- (c) The period during which the Senate is sitting in Committee shall be considered as a suspension of the sitting of the Senate and immediately it terminates, the Senate shall be again called to order by the Chairman, and the report of the Committee's deliberations be presented to it by the Registrar.
- (d) If any of the resolutions of the Committee involve recommendations which are not covered by the motion and the amendments to that motion on the agenda of the meeting, they shall not be considered by the Senate, until notice of these has been given as required under statute 29.
- (e) A motion made as a result of the deliberations of such a Committee may be presented to the Senate without previous consideration by the Syndicate.

(i) Dissolution, Adjournment, etc.,

Statute 59:

A proposal ' that this meeting be now dissolved ' may be moved at any time as a distinct question, but not as an amendment nor so as to interrupt a speech. If the motion is carried, the business before the meeting shall drop,

Statute 60:

A proposal "that the meeting be now adjourned to some special time" may be moved at any time as a distinct question, but not as an amendment, nor, except on the motion of the Chairman, so as to interrupt a speech. If it be negatived, the debate shall be resumed. The same rule will apply to a meeting of the Senate in Committee.

Statute 61:

No amendment shall be moved to a proposal under Statutes 59 and 60 except one for substituting a different time for that to which it is proposed to adjourn the meeting.

Statute 62:

A meeting renewed or continued after an adjournment is to be deemed one with that preceding the adjournment; provided that if the meeting be adjourned to such date as to admit of the notice required by Statute 29 any amendment otherwise in order may be moved at an adjourned meeting if the notice so required be duly given.

Statute 63:

The motion, "that the meeting pass to the next business or item on the statement" may be made at any time as a distinct question, but nor as an amendment, nor so as to interrupt a speech. If such a motion be carried, the proposal under consideration and the amendment thereto, shall not be further dealt with at the meeting.

Statute 64:

No motion for dissolution, or for the adjournment of the meeting, or for the suspension of the sitting, or to pass to the next business, shall be made or spoken to during a debate by any member who has spoken in the debate. Any such motion shall take the place of any question that may be before the meeting, and if not withdrawn must be disposed of before such question is further dealt with.

Statute 65:

When a motion of the class contemplated in the last preceding statute has been brought forward, and negatived no other motion of that class shall be again brought forward until after the lapse of what the Chairman shall deem a reasonable time; nor shall a debate be allowed on such a second or a subsequent motion brought forward during a debate on the same proposal discussed alone, or the same proposal and amendment discussed together.

(j) Right of Speech and Reply

Statute 66:

On each proposal or proposals and amendment in debate, a member may speak once, subject to the provisions of Statutes 53 and 64.

Statute 67:

After the mover of a motion or amendment has spoken, the other members may, save as otherwise provided, speak on the motion or amendment in such order as the Chairman may determine.

Statute 68:

Save in the exercise of a right of reply or as otherwise provided, no member shall speak more than once except with the permission of the Chairman, for the purpose of making a personal explanation but in such cases no debatable matter shall be brought forward.

Statute 69:

The mover of a motion may speak for the second time on the conclusion of a debate, by way of reply.

Statute 70:

The mover of an amendment, or when there is no amendment, the mover of the original resolution, may reply upon the debate before each vote is taken. But the mover of a motion for a dissolution or adjournment or for the suspension of the sitting or for passing to the next business on the statement, has no right to reply.

Statute 71:

No member shall speak on a question after mover has entered on his reply.

Statute 72:

The Chairman has the same right of moving or seconding a motion or amendment and of otherwise taking part in the debate, as any other member. When the Chairman takes part in the debate, he shall vacate the Chair whilst he is addressing the meeting and the Chair shall during such time be taken by the Pro-Vice-Chancellor<sup>3</sup> or in his absence by the senior member present not being the Chairman.

(k) Points of Order:

Statute 73:

Any member may call the Chairman's attention to a point of order even whilst another member is addressing the meeting, but beyond stating the precise point of order raised, he shall not make a speech. Such a call pronounced by the Chairman to be vexatious and any interruption or obstruction to the progress of the business before the Senate pronounced by the Chairman to be unseemly or unreasonable, shall be deemed a breach of order.

Statute 74:

The Chairman shall be sole judge on every point of order and may call any member to order, and if the member so called to order shall, in speaking, disregard such call, the Chairman may direct him to sit down and, thereupon another member may speak.

Statute 75:

In the event of any contumacious disregard of a ruling or call to order by the Chairman, he may request, the member so offending to leave the meeting and on such request, the member named by the Chairman, shall be suspended from his functions as a member during the meeting, and shall be bound immediately to withdraw.

(l) Voting

Statute 76:

On putting any question to vote, the Chairman shall call for an indication of the opinion of the Senate by a show of hands in the affirmative and negative, or by sitting and rising and shall declare the result thereof according to his opinion. If the votes are actually counted the number of votes on either side be recorded in the minutes.

Statute 77:

Any member may then demand a Division, except on a motion for adjournment. Voting in all divisions shall be by ballot.

Statute 78:

The Chairman shall thereupon appoint four Tellers, two on each side; and shall give such directions for effecting the divisions as shall be considered expedient.

Statute 79:

In every division only such members as were present at putting of the question shall be entitled to vote. Voting shall be on papers supplied at the meeting by the Registrar and every voting paper shall be returned with or without the vote.

Statute 80:

Upon the Chairman announcing the division to be closed, the Tellers shall state in writing the number on each side, sign the statement, and hand it to the Chairman together with the voting papers (in two separate bundles,) whereupon the Chairman shall declare the result of the Division to the meeting, and the result shall be recorded in the minutes.

Statute 81:

If, after a division has been taken, five members present demand a recount the Chairman shall appoint two or more members to act as Tellers who shall report the facts found by them to the Chairman, who shall thereupon declare the result to the meeting and such declaration shall be conclusive.

Statute 82:

Pending the recount, the Chairman may, in his discretion, either suspend the sitting or call for such business as may in his opinion, be most conveniently proceeded with. Business thus entered on shall be proceeded with; but on its disposal the regular order of subjects, if it has been departed from, shall be resumed.

(m) Carrying over of Business

Statute 83:

All motions, together with their amendments, if any, on the agenda of a Senate meeting which have not been moved or voted upon for want of time or any other reason shall lapse.

(n) Minutes

Statute 84:

After every meeting of adjourned meeting of the Senate the Registrar shall as early as possible, but in any case, within six weeks after the meeting, send a copy of the draft minutes of such meeting to the address of each member of the Senate. In the event of any exception being taken to the correctness of the minutes as circulated, the attention of the Chairman shall be drawn to the matter in writing before he signs the minutes, and he shall make such alterations as he may deem proper and necessary.

(k) Scrutiny and Counting of Voting Papers

Statute 275:

- (1) All voting papers shall be scrutinised by the Registrar and such other person or persons as may be nominated by the Vice-Chancellor.
- (2) When there are more polling centres than one, voting papers of all the polling centres shall be first mixed up and then scrutinised by the Registrar and such other person or persons as may be nominated by the Vice-Chancellor. The candidate or his agent duly authorised by him in this behalf shall be entitled to be present at the time of scrutiny and counting. In case of a doubt or dispute regarding the validity of ballot paper, the decision of the majority of the scrutineers and, in the event of a tie, that of the Vice-Chancellor shall be final.

Statute 276:

- (a) After the voting papers for an electoral body have been counted the Registrar shall examine the voting papers, rejecting those which are invalid and record the total number of valid and invalid voting papers.
- (b) He shall sort them into parcels according to the first preference recorded for each candidate.

- (c) Each valid voting paper shall originally have a value of 100 votes. The Registrar shall count the number of papers in each parcel and shall credit each candidate with a number of votes equal to 100 times the number of valid papers on which a first preference has been recorded for such candidate and he shall tally the total number of such votes for all candidates put together with the value of total number of valid papers recorded under statute 276 (a).

Statute 277:

The Registrar shall then divide the total value of valid papers by a number exceeding by one, the number of vacancies to be filled. The result increased by one (any fractional remainder being disregarded) shall be the number of votes sufficient to secure the election of a candidate. This number is here in after called the "quota."

Statute 278:

If, at the end of any count, the number of votes credited to a candidate is equal to or greater than the quota, that candidate shall thereupon be elected.

Statute 279:

- (1) If, at the end of any count, the number of votes credited to a candidate is greater than the quota, the surplus shall be transferred, as in this Statute provided, to the continuing candidates for whom the next available preferences have been recorded on the voting papers in the parcel or sub-parcel last received by the elected candidate.
- (2) (a) If more than one candidates have surplus, the largest surplus shall be first dealt with.
- (b) If two or more candidates have an equal surplus, the surplus of the Candidate with the greatest number of votes at the first count at which the candidates in question have an unequal number of votes shall be first dealt with. When the number of votes credited to such candidates are equal at all counts the Registrar shall determine by lot which surplus he will first deal with.
- (3) The Registrar need not transfer a surplus when the surplus, together with any other surplus not transferred is less than the difference....
- (a) between the votes of the candidate lowest on the poll and the votes of the next higher candidate:
- or
- (b) between the total of the votes of the two or more candidates lowest on the poll and the votes of the next higher candidate, provided that the exclusion from the poll of the aforesaid two or more candidates lowest on the poll shall not reduce the number of continuing candidates below the number of vacancies remaining to be filled.
- (4) (a) If the votes credited to an elected candidate consist of original votes only, the Registrar shall examine all the papers contained in the parcel of the elected candidate whose surplus is to be transferred;
- (b) If the votes credited to an elected candidate consist of original and transferred votes or of transferred votes only, the Registrar shall examine the papers contained in the sub-parcel last received by the elected candidate whose surplus is to be transferred;
- (c) In either case the Registrar shall sort out the transferable papers into sub-parcels according to the next available preferences recorded thereon, shall make a separate sub -parcel of nontransferable papers and shall ascertain the number of papers in each sub-parcel.

- (5) The Registrar shall transfer the whole of each sub-parcel of transferable papers to the continuing candidate indicated thereon as the elector's next available preference and shall set aside the non-transferable papers, in a separate parcel.
- (6)
  - (a) If the total value of transferable papers is less than or equal to the surplus, each transferred paper shall carry its last value.
  - (b) If the total value of the transferable papers is greater than the surplus, then each paper transferred shall carry a value equal to the ratio of the surplus to the number of transferable papers. The fractional part, if any, in the value so determined shall be ignored.
  - (c) Each sub - parcel transferred under Statute 279 ( 5 ) shall be marked with the value ( as calculated in ( b ) above of each paper in the sub-parcel and also shall be marked to indicate the count at which the transfer took place.

Statute 280:

- (1) If, at the end of any count, no candidate has a surplus or if any existing surplus need not be and is not transferred, and one or more vacancies remain to be filled, the Registrar shall exclude from the poll the candidate lowest on the poll.
- (2) If, when a candidate has to be excluded, two or more candidates have each the same number of votes and are the lowest on the poll, the candidate with the lowest number of votes at the first count at which the candidates in question have an unequal number of votes shall be excluded, and when the number of votes credited to the candidates are equal at all counts, the Registrar shall determine by lot who shall be excluded.
- (3) Upon the exclusion of any candidate, the Registrar, save as hereinafter provided, shall examine all the papers credited to that candidates, shall sort the transferable papers into sub-parcels according to the next available preferences recorded thereon for continuing candidates, shall transfer each sub-parcel to the candidate for whom that preference is recorded and shall set aside as a separate sub-parcel the nontransferable papers.
- (4)
  - (a) If the papers credited to the candidate consist of original papers only the Registrar shall examine all the papers in the parcel, shall sort the transferable papers into sub -parcels according to the next available preferences recorded thereon for continuing candidates, shall transfer each sub-parcel to the candidate for whom that preference is recorded and shall set aside as a separate sub-parcel the non - transferable papers. Each paper so transferred to a continuing candidate shall carry its original value of 100 votes.
  - (b) If the papers credited to the candidate consist of original as well as transferred papers, the Registrar shall first deal with the original papers as provided in sub clause (a) of this clause. The sub - parcels of transferred papers will then be dealt with one by one in the order in which they were transferred to the excluded candidate.
  - (c) In dealing with a sub-parcel of transferred papers of an excluded candidate, the Registrar shall examine all the papers of this parcel, shall sort the transferable papers into sub-parcels according to the next available preferences recorded thereon for continuing candidates, shall transfer each sub-parcel to the candidate for whom that preference is recorded and shall set aside the non-transferable papers in a separate sub-parcel. Each paper so transferred shall carry its last value.
  - (d) Each sub-parcel transferred under statute-280 (4) shall be marked with the value of each paper in the sub - parcel and also shall be marked to indicate the count at which the transfer took place.

Statute 281:

- (1) If, at the end of any count the number of elected candidates is equal to the number of vacancies to be filled no further transfer votes shall be made.
- (2) If, on exclusion of a candidate, the number of then continuing candidates is equal to the number of vacancies unfilled, the continuing candidates shall there on be elected, and no further transfer of votes shall be made.

Statute 282:

The order of priority of election of elected members shall be the order in which they are severally elected. If at the end of any count two or more candidates are elected, the order of priority shall be according to the number of votes credited to such candidates beginning with the largest.

Statute 283:

- (1) Whenever any transfer is made, each sub-parcel of papers transferred shall be placed on the top of the parcel, if any, of papers of the candidates to whom the transfer is made and that candidate shall be credited with a number of votes equal to the total value papers transferred to him.
- (2) Non - transferable papers shall be set aside as a separate parcel together with any parcel of non-transferable papers already set aside.

Statute 284:

In case of equality of votes in any of the elections, the result will be determined by casting of lot by the Registrar in the presence of the Scrutiny Committee.

Statute 285:

After the scrutiny is completed, the Registrar shall forthwith report to the Vice-Chancellor the result of the Scrutiny, and with his permission announce the same.

Statute 286:

The voting papers may be sealed and kept in the custody of the Registrar and shall be destroyed by him on expiry of thirty days after the announcement of the result of the election.

Statute 287:

- (a) If a candidate elected to the Senate from more than one constituency, he shall by notice in writing signed by him and delivered to the Registrar of the University within seven days of the publication in the Gazette of the result of the last of such elections, choose which of these constituencies he shall represent and such choice once made shall be conclusive;
- (b) If the candidate does not make the choice referred to herein within the specified period of time, the Vice - Chancellor shall decide which constituency he will represent and his decision shall be final;
- (c) When any such choice has been made by the candidate, or a decision given by the Vice - Chancellor, the Vice - Chancellor shall direct the Registrar to take steps for holding an election in the constituency in which a vacancy has occurred by reason of such choice or decision;
- (d) Notwithstanding that such vacancy has not been filled, the Senate may proceed to hold elections in accordance with the relevant Statutes.
