CERTIFICATION

This is to certify that DR. GAURANG D. RAMI, Professor, Department of Economics, Veer Narmad South Gujarat University, Surat, India, has been officially designated as an Adjunct Professor at the School of Advanced Education of Mountain Province State University during the First Semester of School Year 2024-2025.

In this capacity, Dr. Rami contributed his expertise in the following courses:

- Statistics for Business Research in the Master in Business Administration Program
- Advanced Statistics for Investment and Strategic Management in the Doctor in Business Administration Program

As an Adjunct Professor, Dr. Rami performed the following academic functions:

1. Designed and delivered course content that aligns with the academic standards and objectives of the university.
2. Provided advanced knowledge and insights in statistical analysis for business research and investment strategies.
3. Conducted lectures, discussions, and workshops that enhanced the research capabilities of graduate students.
4. Guided students in applying statistical tools and techniques in business research, investment decision-making, and strategic management.
5. Engaged in collaborative discussions with faculty members to improve curriculum development and instructional strategies.
6. Advised graduate students on research methodologies, data analysis, and interpretation of findings.
7. Participated in academic forums, seminars, and scholarly activities that contributed to the academic excellence of the institution.

Given this 5th day of October 2026 at Mountain Province State University, Bontoc, Mountain Province, Philippines.

EDGAR G. CUE, PhD
University President