

CM to visit today
Chief Minister Bhupendra Patel reviewed the rain situation across the state at a cabinet meeting in Gandhinagar and instructed ministers to visit rain-affected districts to oversee relief and rescue operations. Patel himself will visit Surat and Valsad on Thursday, said minister Jitu Vaghani.

Union Home Minister Amit Shah spoke with the chief ministers of Maharashtra, Gujarat and Jammu and Kashmir to take stock of the situation arising from heavy rains there and assured them of all possible assistance from the Centre, officials said. WITH PTI INPUTS

Ahmedabad: The Gujarat cabinet on Wednesday discussed measures to promote environment-friendly transport, with Chief Minister Bhupendra Patel directing officials to prepare comprehensive EV Charging Station Policy.

[illegible]