The Department of Human Resource Development is an elevation of the "Social Studies Cell" that was established in the academic year 1978-79. The main objective of this department is to carry out teaching in the context of social change.

The Department started the Master of Labour Welfare Programme in 1987 and the Master of Human Resource Development in the year 1995. The students who have passed out from the Department with the degree of MA (HRD) or M.L.W. are all well-placed in reputed organizations. A Master Degree course: MA in Human Resource Management and Labour Relations has been launched in 2015. The department also offers various PG-Diploma programmes. The Department introduces new courses and revises existing courses as per the changing needs of the industry. The Department undertakes research-based projects from Government as well as from the corporates.

In alignment with the evolving industry dynamics, the Department continuously emphasizes skill enhancement and practical learning for students. Through workshops, internships, and collaborations with industry experts, it ensures that students gain hands-on experience and are prepared to address real-world challenges.

Professor & Head

Dear Students, Recruiters, and Esteemed Well-wishers,

It gives me great pleasure to welcome our respected recruiters, prospective employers, and aspiring students as we present the Placement Brochure for the academic year 2025–26. As Professor and Head of the Department, I take pride in the academic excellence, skills, and professional readiness demonstrated by our students.

Our department is committed to delivering holistic education through a strong academic framework, modern infrastructure, and an engaging learning environment. Along with theoretical knowledge, we emphasize practical exposure, industry relevance, and the development of intellectual, interpersonal, and leadership competencies to prepare students for the professional world. This Placement Brochure reflects our students' dedication, achievements, and diverse skill sets, and we are confident they are well-equipped to meet industry expectations.

To our students, I extend my heartfelt congratulations on reaching this important milestone. Your perseverance and enthusiasm will continue to uphold the reputation of the department as you progress in your careers. To our valued recruiters, thank you for recognizing the Department of Human Resource Development, VNSGU, as a trusted source of capable and ethical talent.

I encourage both students and recruiters to make the most of the opportunities presented through this brochure. May it serve as a strong link between student aspirations and industry expectations, leading to a successful and rewarding placement season.

Warm regards,

Dr. Digvijaysinh G. Thakore

Professor and Head
