UNIVERSITY EMBLEM

The emblem of VEER NARMAD SOUTH GUJARAT UNIVERSITY is a circular crest with a spiral of a six pointed star enclosed within a symbol of the sun. The triple imaged emblem is framed by the name of the University in Gujarati on the rim of the left third; in English on the right third, and the motto of the University in Sanskrit on the lower third of the round frame. The motto is "SATYAM GYANAM ANANTAM" which means "Truth, Knowledge, Infinity." The three-part emblem illustrates this with the sun representing truth, the star representing knowledge and the spiral representing infinity.

VISION

To be an institute of excellence in higher and technical education segment, sensitive to its regional needs and changing global realities.

MISSION

In pursuance of its vision, Veer Narmad South Gujarat University offers different programmes through well designed curricular, co-curricular and extra-curricular activities; undertakes research and reaches out to society at large with various extension activities, in order to empower its stakeholders for the world class skills in terms of research and enquiry, creativity and innovation, capacity to use high technology and value-based ethical leadership.

ABOUT VEER NARMAD

Narmadashankar Lalshankar Dave, popularly known as Narmad as well as Veer Narmad, was a Gujarati author, poet, scholar and public speaker. Narmad was born in Surat on August 24, 1833. He has contributed immensely to Gujarati literature by the pioneering works in varied genres, i.e. autobiography, poetry, lexicography, and historical plays. Besides, his research in folk literature has been acclaimed nationally. Moreover, he was well-known as an outspoken fearless journalist. His journalistic flair got expression in the newsletter called “Daandiyo” modeled after The Spectator, a weekly British magazine, which Narmad published with the help of his friends. Narmad was a strong opponent of religious fanaticism and he was a patriot. His ideas find expression in his famous songs like “Sahu Chalo Jitva Jang” among others. He stood for self-governance and advocated one national language, Hindi, for all of India nearly five decades before Mahatma Gandhi. He wrote the iconic “Jai Jai Garvi Gujarat” in which he listed with a sense of pride, all the cultural symbols that go into constituting the Gujarati identity. The song has become the refrain of Gujarati pride and identity today. He strongly believed that Gujarat belongs to all the states, communities, races, religions and sects that inhabit in the state. He was a devout poet whom even Gandhi acknowledged for his philosophy of non-violence. He breathed his last on February 26, 1886. In 2004, South Gujarat University was renamed Veer Narmad South Gujarat University in his honour by the state government. His representative works include Narmagadya - a collection of essays, Narmakavita-a collection of poems Narmakathkoshi, Mari Haqeeqat an autobiography (the first autobiography of Gujarati Literature), Newsletter, Narmakosh - a Gujarati dictionary.

I am pleased to present Report of the Development Activities highlighting our university's key achievements and strategic initiatives. A major focus this year has been the robust implementation of NEP 2020. We have successfully introduced a range of interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary certificate courses designed to foster the holistic development of our students, aligning with the policy's vision of a more flexible and inclusive education system.

In addition to our academic advancements, we have strengthened our research ecosystem by providing seed funding for innovative projects and made significant strides in infrastructure development, particularly in IT, to enhance digital processes in teaching, research, and administration.

We are immensely proud to be one of only two universities to have secured a PM-USHA grant of ₹100 crores. This significant achievement not only reflects our university's exceptional capabilities but also positions us as a leader in the field. The grant has enabled us to prepare a detailed blueprint to ensure optimal utilization, further enhancing our institutional capabilities.

Another significant achievement this year was VNSGU achieving the highest registration rate in the country in the All Credit Data with Student ABC ID on 8th January 2024, for which the Department of Higher Education, Ministry of Education, New Delhi, felicitated the university.

I extend my heartfelt gratitude to Board of Management, the Executive Council and all stakeholders for their unwavering support. Your contributions have been vital in our journey towards excellence. I deeply appreciate your efforts and look forward to another year of continued collaboration and success.

Dr. Kishorsinh N. Chavda
Vice Chancellor

Date: 23 October 2024

We are pleased to inform you about significant developments at Veer Narmad South Gujarat University that align with the national educational landscape and our commitment to providing a world-class learning experience.

The National Education Policy (NEP) 2020 is being implemented at our university, introducing a multidisciplinary curriculum that fosters critical thinking, problem-solving, and innovation. Students will have greater flexibility in choosing courses based on their interests and career goals through a choice-based credit system. We are also strengthening research and innovation initiatives to promote knowledge creation and application.

Additionally, we are selected in the Pradhan Mantri Uchchatar Shiksha Abhiyan (PM-USHA) under the Multi-Disciplinary Education and Research Universities (MERU) component. This initiative aims to enhance the quality of higher education and promote multidisciplinary research. We are committed to leveraging the resources and opportunities provided by PM-USHA to strengthen our academic programs and research capabilities.

To ensure effective governance and accountability, we are aligning our practices with the Gujarat Public University Act 2023. The Act emphasizes student welfare and well-being, which will be a top priority for our university. We are also committed to providing high-quality education that meets the needs of our students and society.

These developments are a testament to our dedication to academic excellence, innovation, and social responsibility. We encourage all members of our university community to embrace these changes and contribute to our collective growth.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

This report provides a comprehensive overview of the development activities undertaken by Veer Narmad South Gujarat University (VNSGU) during the period from May 1, 2024, to October 31, 2024. It serves as a reflection of the university's steadfast commitment to academic excellence, sustainable development, and societal contribution. Through a systematic synthesis of the various initiatives and achievements, this report highlights VNSGU's proactive role in enhancing the quality of higher education and its contribution to nation-building.

VNSGU's dedication to maintaining the highest standards of quality management and environmental responsibility is underscored by its certifications from Alcumus ISOQAR, affirming compliance with ISO 9001:2015 and ISO 14001:2015. Additionally, the university's accreditation by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) reflects its sustained focus on academic rigor, institutional governance, and stakeholder satisfaction. The establishment of the Institution's Innovation Council (IIC) further demonstrates VNSGU's commitment to fostering an innovation-driven ecosystem, encouraging entrepreneurship, and promoting research and development.

The report encapsulates the array of academic activities conducted by the university's Post Graduate Departments, which include national and international conferences, seminars, and specialized training programs. These events provided a platform for knowledge exchange, interdisciplinary dialogue, and capacity building, contributing to the intellectual growth of students, faculty, and researchers. Co-curricular and extracurricular activities held during the reporting period enriched the student experience, fostering holistic development. Through debates, cultural events, sports competitions, and community service programs, VNSGU nurtured leadership skills, teamwork, and social responsibility among its students. Visual documentation of these activities through photographs further enhances the report's narrative, capturing the vibrancy and dynamism of campus life.

In parallel with academic excellence, the University Administration Department played a pivotal role in facilitating seamless institutional operations. Significant initiatives related to infrastructure development, digital transformation, and policy reforms were undertaken to enhance administrative efficiency and stakeholder satisfaction. The department's efforts are reflective of VNSGU's strategic vision to remain a responsive and forward-thinking institution.

The synthesis of activities and developments presented in this report showcases VNSGU's unwavering dedication to its mission of delivering quality higher education and contributing to the betterment of society. By embracing continuous improvement, the university remains aligned with national educational objectives and the evolving needs of its stakeholders. The report stands as a testament to VNSGU's relentless pursuit of academic excellence, sustainable practices, and societal engagement. The university's progress during the reporting period exemplifies its pivotal role in nurturing intellectual capital, driving innovation, and supporting the collective vision of nation-building. Through its sustained efforts, VNSGU continues to set benchmarks in higher education and remains committed to its motto of 'SATYAM GYANAM ANANTAM'.

9	Brief Summary of Event	As part of the "Wild Life Week Celebration,2024" celebrations, the Department of Biosciences, VNSGU organized Various Events like Workshop, Seminar, Competitions in between 3-9, October 2024. Day-1/2: 03&04/10/24 Mobile Photography Workshop by Mr. Ankit Changawala, Department of Fine-arts, VNSGU and at the second day Surat's famous Wildlife Photographer two-day photography workshop was organized by Amit Jariwala. The Quiz Competition organized by the Department of Biosciences is a stimulating event designed to test participants' knowledge in various topics related to biology and environmental science. Day-3: On 05th October, in the presence of Vice Chancellor Dr. Kishore Singh Chavda, the celebration of Wildlife Week was formally inaugurated and blessings and good wishes were conveyed. Day-4: On 07 October Organizes Seminar on the biodiversity of snakes, the prevailing misconceptions about them and their biological importance by Dr. P.P. Dodiya, Associate Professor, Sir P. P. Science of College, M.K. Bhavnagar Universit. The Campus Nature Walk organized by the Department of Biosciences is an engaging event aimed at fostering appreciation for local biodiversity. Participants will explore the campus's natural habitats, guided by faculty members who will share insights about native flora and fauna. The walk promotes environmental awareness and encourages a connection with nature, making it an enriching experience for students and staff alike Day-4: On 08 October “Leaf Art Competition” was organized, in which around 15 students prepared beautiful art and craft specimens using various types of leaves found in the University premises. Day-5: : On 09 October Organizes Seminar on “ Past Present od the Indian Wildlife and Challenges for the conservation” by Dr. I.R.Gadhvi, Department of Marine Sciences, M.K. Bhavnagar University. The valedictory address by Registrar Dr. Rameshdan Gadhvi is a significant closing ceremony that celebrates the achievements of graduates. Dr. Gadhvi reflects on the journey of the students, highlighting their hard work, resilience, and contributions to the academic community. The planning of the entire National Wildlife Week celebration was carried out by Dr. Kailash Patel and Event Coordinator Dr. Jagruti Barot, along with planning committee members Dr. Rajeshree Patel and Mr. Vishal Makwana, who contributed their efforts.

9.	Brief Summary of Event	On September 14, 2024, at 11:00 AM, the Department of Comparative Literature, Veer Narmad South Gujarat University, Surat, celebrated Hindi Day with great enthusiasm. A self-composed poetry recitation competition was organized as part of the event, held at Navalram Auditorium under the chairmanship of Dr. Kishorsingh Chavda, Vice-Chancellor of the university. Dr. Rameshdan Gadhvi, Registrar, attended as a special guest, while Dr. Bharat Thakor, Coordinator of the Department, acted as the host and guide for the program. In his speech, Dr. Bharat Thakor, who is also a member of the Official Language Advisory Committee of the Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India, emphasized that Hindi is not only an official language but also a symbol of culture and unity. He highlighted how language and emotions express India's rich cultural heritage. He also reminded the audience that on September 14, 1949, the Constituent Assembly of India officially recognized Hindi as the official language of the country. Furthermore, he discussed the Government of India's efforts in promoting Hindi in the digital age and the National Education Policy 2020's focus on the development of Indian languages. Dr. Mahesh Patel, in his address, shared his insights on the significance of Hindi in national integration. The event witnessed large participation from various university departments, including Comparative Literature, Journalism, English, Biotechnology, and Gujarati, as well as from different colleges. Over 48 students participated in the poetry recitation competition, with a notable performance by Bobby, an international student from Botswana, who recited his original Hindi poem, inspiring the audience. The competition was judged by Dr. Mahesh Patel and Dr. Bhavesh Jadhav. To enhance the significance of the event, UCO Bank's Manager, Mr. Alok Kumar, and Official Language Officer, Mr. Shivam Upadhyay, honored top-performing students of MA Semester-4 in Hindi from the Hindi Center of the Comparative Literature Department. The UCO Bank-sponsored cash prizes were awarded as follows: Ayushi Gamit – ₹2500 Diveshbhai Vasava – ₹2500 Mayuriben Birari – ₹2500 Pallaviben Gamit – ₹2500 Additionally, three emerging poets and Bobby (the international student from the Journalism Department) received special recognition. The top three winners of the poetry competition were: 1st Prize: Desai Drashti – ₹1000 2nd Prize: Jha Amisha – ₹700 3rd Prize: Gupta Suman – ₹500 To add cultural value to the event, Hindi students performed a street play (Nukkad Natak) showcasing the role of Hindi in nation-building. The entire program was successfully coordinated under the leadership of Ms. Nirmla Patel, with active participation from all faculty members of the Department of Comparative Literature.

The event aimed to instruct people on how to protect themselves from fraud related to bank calls, messages, suspicious links, and other deceptive practices. The program was conducted under the guidance and support of Dr. Bharatbhai Thakor, Coordinator of the Department. Faculty members, including Dr. Mukeshbhai Vasava, along with other professors and distinguished guests from Bank of Baroda, including Branch Manager, Chief Manager Anil Kumar, and Vivek Kumar, played a crucial role in making the event a success. Students from the Comparative Literature, Sanskrit, and Hindi departments enthusiastically participated in the program. As the esteemed guests lit the ceremonial lamp, Semester 3 Sanskrit students recited Vedic shlokas, creating an uplifting and energetic atmosphere. The guest speakers, Anil Kumar and Vivek Kumar, provided insightful guidance on how fraudsters lure bank customers with false promises and deceive them. They also explained various precautionary measures to avoid such scams. Additionally, they shared important details about education loans for higher studies and zero-balance savings accounts available for youth aged 18 to 25 years. The program was smoothly conducted with the support of Comparative Literature faculty members and student coordinators from the Hindi department. The event concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks delivered by Prof. Nirmala Patel (Hindi Department).

9.	Brief Summary of Event	On Tuesday, October 8, 2024, the Department of Comparative Literature, Veer Narmad South Gujarat University, Surat, organized the celebration of Navratri with a "Durga Yajna" and "Raas Garba." The event was held under the presidency of Honorable Vice-Chancellor Dr. Kishorsinh Chavda, with the esteemed presence of Registrar Dr. Rameshdan Gadhvi as the special guest, and under the guidance of Dr. Bharatbhai Thakor, the coordinator of the department. The Durga Yajna commenced at 9:00 AM and concluded with the Purnahuti at 1:00 PM. All the academic and non-academic staff from the Department of Comparative Literature, students from various disciplines, and faculty members and students from other departments of the university enthusiastically participated in the event. The primary objective of performing the Yajna was to eliminate negativity and uphold the truth. Furthermore, in the modern era, where the world is drifting away from its own culture and leaning toward Western influences, this Yajna was conducted with the aim of reconnecting students with Indian culture and its rich heritage. Following the Yajna, a Garba event was organized at 1:00 PM. In which, faculty members and students from the department participated with great enthusiasm, dancing to the rhythm of Garba until 4:00 PM, marking the conclusion of the day's celebrations.

9.	Brief Summary of Event	"Gandhi Jayanti" is the annual celebration of Mahatma Gandhi's birth anniversary, observed every year on October 2nd. This day is also celebrated as International Day of Non-Violence. In fact, Gandhi Ji is globally known for his non-violent movement that led to India's independence, and this day is celebrated to honor and pay tribute to him at the international level. To mark this occasion, the Education Department of Veer Narmad South Gujarat University held a pre-celebration of Gandhi Jayanti on 01/10/2024, Tuesday. For this, the M.Ed. Semester-1 and 3 trainees expressed their desire to watch the film "Gandhi," which depicts incidents from Mahatma Gandhi's life and his struggle for the nation. This request was approved by the Chairman. On 01/10/2024, at 11:00 AM, everyone gathered to watch the film, including the Head of the Education Department, faculty members, and M.Ed. Semester-1 and 3 trainees. The program began with Dr. Amitkumar Mali introducing Mahatma Gandhi and the film "Gandhi." The film began at 11:15 AM, and with a short 10-minute break in between, it continued peacefully and emotionally until 2:40 PM. Through the film, awareness about Gandhi Ji's principles increased, and the struggles of India's freedom movement, along with the dire circumstances of that time, were brought to the forefront. Watching the poignant scenes of the film not only instilled a sense of pride but also aroused a feeling of enthusiasm. However, the film did not limit these emotions just to the viewing experience; it also inspired the viewers to transition from being socially responsible to nation-conscious. The entire program was organized by Dr. Amitkumar Mali, under the inspiration of Dr. Rajendra Patel. To ensure the success of the event, trainees Tandel Bhavik, Savaniya Jaydeep, Chaudhary Neeraj, and Jagatap Kalpesh worked diligently.

9.	Brief Summary of Event	Navratri is celebrated as a vibrant festival, during which the worship of Goddess Shakti and the traditional Garba dance are performed. Navratri is a symbol of unity and the victory of truth over falsehood. Along with this spirit of renewal, the traditions and culture of Navratri remain intact and unbroken. The longest festival in the world, the Navratri celebration, was joyously celebrated by the trainees, who wholeheartedly participated in the Garba dance. For this, the M.Ed. Semester-1 and 3 trainees obtained prior approval from the Head of the department for decorating the classroom and organizing the Garba. As part of the pre-planned arrangement, the classroom was beautifully decorated with colorful village-style torans and attractive flowers. On 11th October 2024, at 11:00 AM, with devotion and enthusiasm, everyone gathered to play Garba, dressed in colorful traditional attire and ornaments, with joy on their faces. The gathering included the Chairman of the Education Department, the department's faculty, and M.Ed. Semester-1 and 3 trainees. At the beginning, Head of the Department, faculty members, all the staff of the department, and the trainees of Semester-1 and 3 together performed a collective Aarti to worship Goddess Adishakti. After that, in two rounds, the celebration of Navratri, the festival of power, devotion, and worship of Jagat Janani Jagdamba, commenced with Garba. All the trainees, and the faculty participated enthusiastically. During a 30-minute break in between, refreshments were also arranged. Afterward, the second round was completed with the same joy, and at 3:40 PM, the event was concluded. The entire program was organized under the inspiration of Head of the Department Dr. Rajendra Patel, and by Dr. Amitkumar Mali and Dr. Bhavesh Modi. To make this event successful, the trainees Savaniya Jaydeep, Ghodawala Anjna, and Kadiwala Nilofar took great effort.

9.	Brief Summary of Event	On July 18, 2024, the Department of English at Veer Narmad South Gujarat University (VNSGU) organized a comprehensive session focused on the benefits of meditation for Semester III students of the M.A. Programme. This engaging event was led by representatives from Falun Dafa, also known as Falun Gong, a practice that harmonizes meditation with teachings on moral and spiritual growth. The session began with an introduction to the core principles of Falun Dafa, which emphasizes the cultivation of Truthfulness, Compassion, and Forbearance. The representatives explained how these principles guide practitioners in their daily lives and contribute to personal development. Following the theoretical overview, the students participated in practical meditation exercises. The session included guided demonstrations of Falun Dafa's five sets of exercises, which combine gentle movements, meditation, and deep breathing techniques. These exercises are designed to enhance physical health, reduce stress, and improve mental clarity. The event also highlighted the connection between meditation and academic success. The representatives discussed how regular practice of Falun Dafa can help students manage stress, increase concentration, and maintain emotional balance, thereby supporting their academic endeavours and overall well-being. In addition to the hands-on practice, the session featured a Q&A segment where students had the opportunity to ask questions about the meditation techniques and their application in everyday life. The representatives shared personal experiences and provided insights into how integrating Falun Dafa into one's routine can lead to significant improvements in quality of life. Overall, the session provided valuable insights and practical tools for the students, offering them a deeper understanding of how meditation can be a powerful aid in their personal and academic journeys.

on the occation of 60th Year celebration of the Veer Narmad South Gujarat University, surat, the Mahatma Gandhi Department of Rural Studies organized"Training program on mushroom cultivation and its value addition" was conducted held on 5/10/2024. for the students. In the movement of developed India, this training was organized guidance under Dr. Deepak Bhoje , Head of the Department with the objective that students could not limit their studies to a job-seeking approach, to move out to self-employment opportunities and to start their own agrobased startup.

Mrs. Nayaneshbhai and his team gave a first-hand understanding of the world of mushrooms, various species, opportunities for economic freedom through mushroom farming and its value addition, benefits from mushroom farming along with traditional farming, the vast market system of mushroom processing and value addition, mushroom seed cultivation and various utilities of mushrooms. Apart from this, in his unique style, he equipped the trainees with the concept of life through 'job-to-work self-employment'. Understanding the basic principles for mushroom farming, tools required for mushroom rearing, raw material, location selection, different species of edible mushrooms, importance of mushrooms in terms of health, use of mushrooms in the treatment of various diseases, use of mushrooms in the treatment of various diseases, use of mushrooms in the treatment of various diseases. Understanding of medicinal mushroom farming practices, farm design and infrastructural facilities, care to be taken while preparing mushroom beds, barriers to mushroom rearing, temperature and humidity care required for mushrooms, etc. At the same time, all these things were resolved by exchanging confusing questions on behalf of the trainees. In the afternoon, practical activities on mushroom cultivation were conducted on the department with the student, in which cutting of paddy straw, socking of 4% of it in formalin/ formaldehyde, and all the trainees were given an opportunity to perform the initial preparations for mushroom cultivation experimentally. Apart from this, the trainees were given an understanding of various dishes made from mushrooms.

On the last day of the training, he reviewed things like repeating the training given during the following days, keeping in mind in growing mushrooms financially. Apart from this, post harvest management in mushrooms, value addition and mushroom marketing were guided by faculty members. Mushroom seeds (Spawn) gave a detailed understanding of the process of rearing. All the trainees were then made to practice filling mushroom bags on the field for experimental work on mushroom planting, so that the students could grow mushrooms in less than scientific investment.

8. IAS/IPS

(8.1.) guide students preparing for the PSI + Constable and UPSC/GPSC exams at the IAS/IPS and other competitive exam training

On July 5, 2024, at the Veer Narmad South Gujarat University campus, Shri Bhagirath Gadhi, the Deputy Commissioner of Police, posted in Surat city, was present to guide students preparing for the PSI + Constable and UPSC/GPSC exams at the IAS/IPS and other competitive exam training centre. He shared valuable advice with the students on what to read for the exams, how to prepare effectively, and the specific requirements of the exams. He explained how much to read, what to skip, and how to analyze previous years' question papers effectively.

He also provided guidance on how to read important newspapers and how to extract exam-relevant information from them. Shri Gadhvi elaborated on how to complete the syllabus, how to write detailed answers during the exam to succeed, and how to approach the preliminary exam tests, including how many mock tests to take. He offered insights into answer writing for the main exam, advising on how to understand the wording of questions, the expectations of the exam, and how to structure the answers accordingly. He also provided guidance on how to stay mentally, physically, and spiritually strong during exam preparation and how to achieve success in any aspect of life. Lastly, he recommended limiting time spent on social media and mobile phones and emphasized how to use them wisely. He concluded with an inspiring message: "Learn to endure every situation in life and adapt well to every circumstance. Life is beautiful, and with hard work, success will follow."

8. ICCR Students

(9.1.) Report on ICCR Students at Veer Narmad South Gujarat University (VNSGU)

Veer Narmad South Gujarat University (VNSGU), located in Surat, has actively engaged with its international student community to ensure their safety and well-being. Following an incident involving international students at Gujarat University, VNSGU has taken proactive measures to address potential concerns and provide a conducive environment for international students.

Key Initiatives for International Students:

Increased Security Measures:

In response to security concerns, VNSGU has stepped up patrolling in hostels to ensure the safety of international students. Registrar Dr. R. C. Gadhvi mentioned that all necessary safety measures have been implemented and that regular dialogues with students are held to keep them involved in local university events.

Student Comfort and Facilities:

VNSGU provides separate hostels for male and female international students. Each student has an individual room with a separate pantry for cooking. The students' feedback and concerns are listened to regularly, creating a comfortable living environment.

Engagement and Communication:

The university administration, led by the Vice Chancellor, Dr. K. N. Chawda, and the Registrar, Dr. R. C. Gadhvi, has been in close communication with international students to address their issues. The authorities regularly involve these students in university activities, ensuring their integration into campus life.

Case Study: Razia Muradi - ICCR Student at VNSGU

One of the prominent international students at VNSGU is Razia Muradi, pursuing her PhD in Public Administration under the Indian Council for Cultural Relations (ICCR) program. Originally from Bamyar, Afghanistan, Razia joined VNSGU in 2021 after completing her Master's in Public Administration.

She highlighted her positive experience at VNSGU, mentioning the comfort of the facilities and the supportive atmosphere. Razia also pointed out that during the Ramzan festival, international students observe traditional customs, such as Sehri and Iftar, while respecting local norms.

VNSGU's initiatives, including enhanced safety measures and regular student engagement, have ensured that international students, especially those under ICCR, feel welcomed and secure on campus. The university's efforts to involve these students in local events and its provision of individual rooms and cooking facilities highlight its commitment to the well-being of its international community.

(9.2.) Report on ICCR Students Meeting and International Students Get-Together at Veer Narmad South Gujarat University (VNSGU)

Date: Saturday, May 4, 2024

On Saturday, May 4, 2024, Veer Narmad South Gujarat University (VNSGU) hosted a special get-together for its international students, including those studying under the Indian Council for Cultural Relations (ICCR) program. The event, held at the Department of English, VNSGU, was presided over by the Honorable Vice Chancellor, Dr. K. N. Chavda, and Respected Registrar, Dr. R. C. Gadhvi. It allowed the students to connect with the university officials in an informal setting, fostering interaction and mutual understanding. The gathering was followed by a dinner, celebrating the university's commitment to its diverse international student community.

Highlights of the Event:

1. Vice Chancellor's Address: The Honorable Vice Chancellor, Dr. K. N. Chavda, warmly welcomed the international students and acknowledged their contribution to the university's cultural richness. He emphasised the university's efforts to provide a secure and supportive environment for international students and encouraged them to engage actively in university events.

"Your presence at VNSGU enriches our cultural fabric, and we are committed to ensuring that your journey here is both rewarding and comfortable," Dr. Chavda stated.

2. Registrar's Remarks: Registrar Dr. R. C. Gadhvi reiterated the university's dedication to the well-being of international students. He assured them that the administration was always available to address any concerns and emphasised the importance of maintaining open communication.

"We are here to support you in every way possible, and we encourage you to reach out whenever you need assistance," said Dr. Gadhvi.

3. Students' Responses: The students expressed appreciation for the event and the university's continued efforts to ensure their safety and comfort. Many students shared positive feedback, highlighting how VNSGU has been a welcoming and supportive environment for them. They expressed gratitude for the administration's attentiveness to their needs and initiatives to enhance their experience on campus.

"We feel valued and supported here, and it's great to see the university taking steps to ensure our well-being," stated a representative of the students.

Dinner and Social Interaction:

Following the formal addresses, a dinner was held at the Department of English, VNSGU. This allowed international students to engage with university officials and each other in a relaxed and friendly atmosphere. The dinner celebrated the strong bond between the international student community and VNSGU.

The get-together on Saturday, May 4, 2024, highlighted VNSGU's ongoing commitment to fostering an inclusive and supportive environment for its international students. The evening's events, capped by a dinner, provided a platform for cultural exchange and strengthened the ties between the university and its international student body.

University Song

May green, propitious land of south Gujarat be hailed;
Our university set up is beauty with bliss dovetailed.

Tapi, Purna, the river Narmada, Ambika, Kaveri;
South Gujarat is so lush green in riverine silken sari.
A wreath of pearly waves of the westerly sea roars;
The soil is fertile all year graced with natural resource.

All folks are joyous, noble, and good-natured as well...
May green, propitious land of south Gujarat be hailed...

Variegated mores are of Raniparaj and Kaliparaj:
Festive are the ways of tribesmen and forest-dwellers.
Ports are humming here, every industry flourishes;
Art, craft and brotherhood what very age nourishes.

Here the modern time itself first dawned and prevailed...
May green, propitious land of south Gujarat be hailed...

With a pinch of salt at Dandi, Gandhi defied the crown;
With Satyagrah at Bardoli, Sardar achieved renown.
The lofty song of Gujarat the poet Narmad penned;
Munshiji for ever taught what love means for the land

Dada sounded a bugle here for freedom unveiled;
May green, propitious land of south Gujarat be hailed....

The University of South Gujarat is indeed our mother;
An oracle of truth, knowledge and infinity to nurture.
Her pride, spread, progress are dearer to us than lives;
We should win laurels for her in order that she thrives.

On the feet of learning let Parijat of devotion be dwelled;
May green, propitious land of south Gujarat be hailed;
Our university set up is beauty with bliss dovetailed.

વિશ્વવિદ્યાલય ગીત

ધન્ય ધન્ય ધરતી લીલી, મંગળ દક્ષિણ ગુજરાત,
સ્થાપિત વિદ્યાપીઠ અમારી રમ્ય અને રળિયાત.

તાપી, પૂર્ણા, સરિત નર્મદા, અમ્બિકા, કાવેરી,
લાટ સદાએ લીલોછમ નદીઓનાં પટકૂળ પહેરી.
પશ્ચિમે રત્નાકર કેરી ધૂધવે તરંગમાળ,
કુદરતની છે મહેર કે ભૂમિ બારે માસ રસાળ.

સરળ પ્રકૃતિનાં સૌ લોકો આનન્દી, અભિજાત.....
ધન્ય ધન્ય ધરતી લીલી, મંગળ દક્ષિણ ગુજરાત.....
ભૃગુશ્લષિની પુણ્યભૂમિ છે, ભૃગુકચ્છ મશહુર.....
ચોર્યાસી બંદરના ઘજથી, સુરત સૌમ્ય – ભરપૂર,
રામ અને શબરીને પગલે, ધન્ય ડાંગની ધરતી
કોલક, કીમ, મીઢોળા નદીઓ, નીશદિન કલકલ કરતી.

સાત સમંદર પાર અહીંની પ્રજા ઘણી પ્રખ્યાત
ધન્ય ધન્ય ધરતી લીલી, મંગળ દક્ષિણ ગુજરાત.....

રાનીપરજ ને કાળીપરજના ભાતીગળ સંચાર,
આદિવાસી – વનવાસીઓના ઉત્સવમય વ્યવહાર.
અહીં બંદરો ધમધમતાં, ઉદ્યોગો ધમધોકાર,
કલા- કસબને બ્રાતૃભાવના અહીં ઉત્તમ સંસ્કાર.

અર્વાચીન સમયનું ઊગ્યું અહીં પહેલું પરભાત.....
ધન્ય ધન્ય ધરતી લીલી, મંગળ દક્ષિણ ગુજરાત.....

નમક લઈ દાંડીમાં ગાંધીએ ફેંક્યો પડકાર,
બારડોલીના સત્યાગ્રહથી પંકાયા સરદાર.
કવિ નર્મદની કલમે પ્રગટ્યું ગરવું ગુર્જરી-ગીત,
મુનશીજીએ સદા શીખવી અસ્મિતા શું પ્રીત.

સ્વતંત્રતાનો દાદાએ અહીં શંખ ફૂંક્યો સાક્ષાત્,
ધન્ય ધન્ય ધરતી લીલી, મંગળ દક્ષિણ ગુજરાત.....

દક્ષિણ ગુર્જર ક્ષેત્રની વિદ્યાપીઠ અમારી માતા,
સત્ય, જ્ઞાનને અનંતની એ છે ઉજ્જવલ ઉદ્ગાતા.
એનાં ગૌરવ, વિકાસ પ્રગતિ અમને પ્રાણથી વહાલાં,
એને કંઠે પહેરવીશું સિદ્ધિની જયમાલા.

વિદ્યાને ચરણે ધરીએ નિષ્ઠાનાં પારિજાત,
ધન્ય ધન્ય ધરતી લીલી, મંગળ દક્ષિણ ગુજરાત,
સ્થાપિત વિદ્યાપીઠ અમારી રમ્ય અને રળિયાત.
