Ms. Shephali S. Raskapurwala
2219 Open Sky Drive
Fullerton, CA 92833

Dear Ms. Raskapurwala:

This is in reply to your request for an evaluation of your Indian educational credentials to determine its comparability to social work education offered by accredited programs in the United States.

The official documents, which we received from your university and Social Work program, along with the materials you supplied, show that you have completed a course of study leading to a master's degree in social work from the Veer Narmad South Gujarat University in 2009.

Upon review of your official transcript, competencies (expected outcomes) and course descriptions, it is our judgement that your degree may be regarded as the equivalent of a master's degree in social work earned from a school of social work accredited by the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE).

This evaluation by the Council on Social Work Education is entirely advisory and any agency, organization, or university is free to arrive at its own judgment of the equivalence of your social work credentials for practice under their auspices or for further professional education in the United States.

Sincerely,

Dean Pierce, Ph.D.
Office of International Social Work Degree Recognition
And Evaluation Service
