ABOUT CONFERENCE

The Young Researchers Conference (YRC) – 3rd Edition, organized by VNSGU, provides a platform for young researchers, scholars, and academicians to present research, exchange ideas, and engage in scholarly discussions. The theme, “Women Empowerment,” focuses on equality, education, economic independence, leadership, dignity, and equitable opportunities. The conference promotes multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary research and aims to translate research into practical solutions for a more equitable, inclusive, and empowered society.

Key Features

- Presentation: Research scholars may present ongoing research through oral or poster presentations
- Abstract Selection: Selected abstracts will be scheduled on a first-come, first-served basis, subject to acceptance and slot availability.
- Best Presentation Awards: Track-wise awards will be presented for the best oral and poster presentations.
- Publication: Selected papers may be considered for publication in the VNSGU Journal of Research and Innovation (E-ISSN: 2583-584X), subject to journal requirements.
