

- 4 (a) Fill up : 10
- (i) Sand and stone representing Zen spiritualism are typical elements of _____ gardens.
 - (ii) Central fountain with four basic channels emanating is a typical feature of _____ garden.
 - (iii) Stone Henge is a Palaeolithic structure located in _____ continent.
 - (iv) Vrindavan Gardens are located in _____.
 - (v) Shalimar, Nishat gardens are the examples of _____ gardens.
 - (vi) Ferns are typically common in _____ type of climate.
 - (vii) Trees planted on the _____ side of the building can be a good solution for shading during summer time.
 - (viii) Gulmohurs flower during _____ season.
 - (ix) A trellis can be used for guiding the growth of _____.
 - (x) Cactuses are native of _____ regions.
- (b) Discuss the features of Japanese gardens with their unique elements, with the help of an example. 10
- 5 (a) Discuss the importance of 'Axis' as an element to plan the landscape, with example of any famous garden that you have studied. 10
- (b) Discuss the design concerns and consequent landscape proposal for an institution. 10
- OR
- (b) Out of the Case Study Project undertaken by your group, list the design concerns and consequent landscape proposals. 10
- 6 Any two short notes out of following :
- (i) Features of Contemporary gardens (with an example)
 - (ii) Basic elements of urban landscape
 - (iii) Green roofs
 - (iv) Indoor gardens.
-