 The BSE sensx plunged to a 2 week low on Monday, down over 365 points at 16502, as the investors sold across sector on weak industrial growth and turmoil in global markets amid Eurozone debt worries.
 The selling was so strong that all 13 sectorial indices closed with losses of upto 3.43% with consumer durables, metals, IT, banking, auto and capital goods taking severe hits.
 In all, 27 of the 30 scrips in the sensx ended in the red. The index opened nearly 200 points lower and fell further to settle at 16502, down over 365 points.

In the past two sessions, investors have lost over 115 lakh crore on the NSE. The 50 issue Nifty also tumbled 113 points to end below the psychological 5 k marks of 4,947. The country's factory output as measured by the Index of Industrial production was a meagre 3.3% because of poor show by manufacturing and capital goods sectors. As a result, market reacted negatively with sharp slip.

Globally, most of the Asian markets closed in the red. The Hang Sang was down 4.21%, Nikkei by 2.31, Strait Times by 2.89% China and South Korea were closed on Monday. In Europe CAC, DAX, FTSE were down between 1.6 and 4.0%.

The global sentiment also dampened further after European Central Bank Chief Economist, Jaregan Sterk resigned because of policy differences with the bank leadership over handling debt crisis in the Euro-zone nations.

Growing fears of Greek default and reports that Moody's investor service may downgrade big banks in France over their exposure to Greece added the selling pressure.

As per the provisional SEBI data in the last five months FIIS have sold shares worth Rs. 427 crore.

The total market breath at BSE remained negative with 1,929 counters losing ground, as against 875 finishing with gains. The total turn over dropped to Rs. 2264 crore from 3133 crore last week.
