

THEORY AND PRACTICE OF CO-OPERATION

Year :- 2010-2011

Objective:-

The objective of the paper I to requaiu the student with te nature and development of Co-Operatives.

1. Co-Operation Meaning and content-area of operation-Co-operatives and economically sound and weaker sections-Co-0peration in developing societies-Role of co-operation in developed societies-pre-condition for the succession of co- operation. [20%]
2. Origin of co-operative movement-essential ingredients Main principles of co-operation.The Problems of co-operation. [20%]
3. Growth of co-operatives Back ground under which the co-operative movement emerged-Objectives of Co-operative activity serricecum organidation and work Profit Making No Profit-no loss principle Place of co-operation in the economic system –Scope and size of Co-operation organization. [20%]
4. Organization of different type of co-operative societies-Producers Societies-Consumers societies-Credit and non-credit co-operative Organizations co-oprative societies for Ready Crops Milk Producers co-oprative societies Sugarcane Producers co-oprative societies Single purpose and multi-purpose societies-Primary-central-State and Federal Co-operative Institutions-Single village and groups ocieties. [25%]
5. Inspection and supervision of Co-operative societies. [05%]
6. Co-operative training-education and propaganda. [05%]
7. Co-operative and the State-Co-operative planning. [05%]